

Startek Celebrates Grand Opening of Its New Delivery Campus in Tegucigalpa with Honduras President Juan Orlando Hernández

January 16, 2019

DENVER--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 16, 2019-- Startek, Inc. (NYSE: SRT), a global provider of customer experience management, has launched its new delivery campus in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, marking the company's third campus in the Central American country.

Honduras President Juan Orlando Hernández, senior government officials and community partners all welcomed members of the Startek executive team during a celebration that included presentations and a ceremonial ribbon cutting to mark the opening of the new facility.

"Startek's success is directly tied to the strength of our relationships and commitments – with our clients, our team members, and the communities in which we live and work," said Lance Rosenzweig, president and global CEO of Startek. "We now employ more than 2,200 customer experience experts in Honduras, and we are thrilled to give back to the community by providing new and stable jobs, training and education, local investment, and community support. The exceptional talent of our Honduran workforce has been an integral part of our growth for nearly a decade, and we are proud to once again expand our presence in this beautiful country."

In 2011, Startek became one of the first BPO companies to launch a delivery campus in Honduras with the opening of its site in San Pedro Sula. And in 2014, Startek became the first foreign outsourcer to establish a presence in the Honduran capital of Tegucigalpa. With the opening of its third campus today, Startek employees will provide omni-channel customer experience management and back office BPO services for some of the world's most iconic brands in a variety of high growth verticals.
